Francis Street to Remain Closed at Highway 76 Wednesday March 8, 2017

Branson, MO (March 7, 2017) – The City of Branson will keep Francis Street closed at the intersection of Highway 76 closed through Wednesday evening, March 8. The closure will allow construction crews to complete the installation of a new waterline and underground utility conduits across Francis as part of the 76 Revitalization Program. Motorists can follow the detour signs to either Rosalee Street or Gretna Road.

Weather permitting, Francis Street will reopen to traffic Thursday morning, March 8, 2017.
